

Since Maggie Dooley Learned The Hooley Hooley

Em

B7

Em

Maggie Dooley packed her grip and left Erin's Isle for a trip to Honolulu

G

D7

G

Maggie Dooley learned to dance and after a while came back home dressed like a Zulu

B7

Em

B7

Em

She has a brand new walk, she talks Hawaiian talk

A7

D7

She's made a Honolulu out of poor old County Cork

CHORUS:

G

C6

D7 G

D7

G

Since Maggie Dooley learned the Hooley Hooley Ireland is fading away

B7

Em

A7

D7

The Sweeneys and Daleys have sold their shillelahs and bought ukuleles to play

G

C6

D7 G

C6 C7 B7

The fat Miss Kelly wiggles just like jelly when those dancers sway

E7

A7

And every colleen on the street is all dressed up like shredded wheat

G

A7 D7 G

Since Maggie Dooley learned the Hoo - - ley.

Verse 2:

Em

B7

Em

Maggie Dooley has the people all off their nut with her new Hawaiian blarney

G

D7

G

Everybody's leaving town and building a hut on the lakes of old Killarney

B7

Em

B7

Em

I think it's a disgrace; the women of the place

A7

D7

Are making wild men out of all the poor old Irish race [CHORUS]